DISCLAIMER

Classes are created for the purpose of instruction and learning. These classes are not being held with any warranty of instruction. The classes are used as a tool for learning about natural hair based on the experiences of the teachers and natural hair literature. All information, flyers, pamphlets, and other material used is given for the purpose of learning. The information is given with knowledge of the truth but is not warranted. Please research and retrieve necessary learning tools for more knowledge in natural hair. All teachers are highly trained and competent. However, Na'Klectic Natural Hair Gallery and Spa is not liable for any product allergies, accidental injury, or any instruction/information distributed or taught by its teachers. All teachers are independent contractors. All teachers are given information based on experiences and are not warranting any information discussed or taught. All teachers base all information given from experience, product knowledge, possible coursework, and classes. Classes are non-refundable but can be substituted for another class. Any changes must be made 48 hours prior to classes. All changes made after that designated period will forfeit deposit for classes selected. Any student that is disruptive during the class will forfeit the deposit and will be asked to leave the class. Please bring pens, pencils, paper, and a snack. Food, children, and guests are not allowed in classes. Na'Klectic Natural Hair Gallery and Spa has the right to refuse any students based on disruptive or inappropriate behavior. We look forward to teaching and instructing students about natural hair and products, massage, and facials.
